It is very important that you are reading with your child every night and asking your child comprehension questions about what he/she is reading. According to new South Carolina state laws, 3rd grade students will be retained in 3rd grade if they do not score at least a 177 on the reading portion of the Spring MAP test. This is why most of our homework for the year will focus on responding to their reading at home. Thank you for your help! Beginning next week, students will take home a reading log with a comprehension question for each night. Students are to complete these nightly and turn them in on Friday.

This year, third graders will be taking the end of the year state testing on their Chromebooks.

As we move forward with our district's e-learning initiative, we will begin transitioning some assessments online. In an effort to prepare them for success, we will begin doing some assessments online in order to accustom them to digital assessments. These scores will be sent home as part of their graded work, but we will no longer be sending the hard copies. If you would like a copy of your child's assessment, please contact your teacher personally to receive a copy of the assessment. Thank you for your continual support and collaborating with us as we best prepare your children for the future!
